

“... In the 10 years since he first strolled onstage, mangling the language but never the heart and soul behind it, Lucien has become a Canadian cultural icon. Lucien is a kind of gift from Button to the rest of the country an Acadian blessing of laughter and perspective and from the heart wisdom. It is a show not to be missed. Lucien 2 is not to be missed because it is finely textured portrait that brings a slice of Canada so warm, vibrant, hopeful. The credit is due to Button's sharp eye and ear for detail and the richness of acting so natural the nuance, brilliant pacing ... it is a rare and wonderful gift and Button offers it compellingly ...”
